Writ Petition No. 5467 (SS) of 2001
(Old No. 2462 of 1996)

Hon'ble M.M. Ghildiyal, J

Heard Sri C.S.S. Rawat, holding brief Sri S.S. Negi, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri V. K. Bisht, Sr. Advocate, assisted by Ms. Sangeeta Miyan, learned counsel for respondents.

By means of this writ petition, petitioner has challenged the order dated 19.06.1995 by which petitioner was retrenched from service and in lieu thereof, he was paid one month salary, as required under law.

The submission of the petitioner is that petitioner was appointed as Chowkidar on 17.03.1986 in the Forest Corporation and all of sudden respondent no. 2 has issued retrenchment notice. Respondent no. 2 has not paid a month's salary, as stated in the notice.

Petitioner has submitted that he has not received a month's salary, as required under law.

Petitioner may approach the Labour Court for redressal of his grievance.

Writ petition is dismissed on the ground of alternative remedy.
